Green Towns Are Topic Of Planning Meeting

The Baltimore-Washington chapter of the American Institute of Planning held its annual meeting at the Methodist Church on April 23. Present at the meeting and acting as Chairman was Tracey Augur, who was the original head of the planning program for Greenbelt.

Speakers for the evening included Rexford G. Tugwell, originator of the idea of green towns, who spoke on the history of Greenbelt; Hale Walker, chief planner for Greenbelt itself; Carl Feiss, who spoke on the future of green towns for America; and Mayor Alan Kistler of Greenbelt, who welcomed the guests. Kistler suggested Greenbelt as the location for the annual Seminar to discuss future plans for such towns.

A one-hour tour of the inner walks was conducted by city manager Charles McDonald. The main purpose for the tour was to demonstrate the advantages in having underpasses throughout the city.

A turkey dinner was served at this meeting by the women of the WSCS of the Methodist Church.

Police News Review

A number of auto parts thefts have been reported to the Greenbelt police this week. Interior pieces were taken from one car, hub caps from another and items from a glove compartment from another. Chief Williams advises car owners to be sure that their cars are locked overnight as one precaution against further thefts.

Two dog owners were fined last week. One fine was for four dollars and the other seven.

An unidentified boat was found at the lake. Police have been unable to find its owner.

An item of concern with the Police department is the vandalism in the underpasses. The passageways were recently painted and almost immediately they were found defaced with names and expressions, some of which border on obscenity. The parents of children who are caught marking up those passes will face the possibility of paying for the cost of re-painting these areas again. Last week a tour was conducted through these underpasses in order to show the benefits of such passages in a community. Several important persons were on this tour and were confronted with the defacement, Chief Williams noted.

Registration Announced For New First Graders

The Board of Education of Prince Georges County Public Schools has designated Friday, May 6, and Friday, June 3, as registration dates for children entering the first grade in the fall.

Parents may register their children at the nearest elementary school on either Friday, May 6, or Friday, June 3, from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. Children must be six years of age on or before January 1, 1961.

It is advisable to present child's birth certificate at the time of registration, as well as evidence of the child's vaccination and immunization against diphtheria.

If for any reason a child wishes to register in a school outside of his present attendance area, parents must request a transfer. A personal letter should be addressed to the office of the Board of Education, Upper Marlboro, Maryland, or an application form for a transfer should be requested.

Applicants will be notified of the decision in order that they may register their child not later than June 24 or with the final pre-school registration dates which have been scheduled for August 26 and September 2.

Increase in City Bus Fare Rates Proposed

A raise in bus fare rates was approved for first reading by the city council last week. The move was an effort to decrease the yearly deficit of the bus operation. New cit of the bus operation. New fares are 15 cents per ride for any part of the first zone and ten cents additional for any part of the second zone, for persons 12 years and over. This increases the fare from Greenbelt to U. S. 1 (Baltimore Blvd.) from 20 to 25 cents.

From 6 to 12 years of age, fares are five cents a ride in either or both zones. The fare for persons from twelve to eighteen years of age, inclusive, traveling to and from any school except colleges and universities, shall be ten cents per ride in each direction, regardless of the number of zones travelled.

The fare increase must first be approved by the state public service commission, and the effective date will be announced by the city.

Parade, Banquet on Sunday Start Week of Youth Fitness Activities

A tightly-packed schedule of activities marking Greenbelt's observance of National Youth Fitness Week will be touched off on Sunday, May 1, by an opening day Little League Baseball game and a community parade featuring fast-stepping majorettes, adult and youth bands, units of men and women from the Greenbelt Fire and Rescue Squad, and members of the many local sports organizations.

Fund Drive Tops $1500

With just a handful of courts yet to be heard from, the News Review fund-raising drive for 1960 has topped the $1,500 mark, reported Mrs. Elaine Skolnik, chairman of the campaign. It is expected that the final yield from the drive will exceed last year's total of $1,540.

For those who were missed in the drive, contributions will still be gratefully received by Mrs. Skolnik in person or through the mail at 2-E Northway.

Amending Ordinance To Charter Proposed

City manager Charles T. McDonald has prepared and the city council has accepted for first reading an amending ordinance to the city charter which would provide for the financing and control of funds for capital improvement items.

The city council is given authority to establish a revolving fund up to $50,000 to be used for payment of capital improvements approved by the council. Financing is to be provided through either (1) annual budget appropriations not to exceed 5 percent of real property taxes raised in any one year; (2) use of surplus account; or (3) issuance of notes or other indebtedness.

The proposed charter change restricts the amount that the council may approve for any single capital improvement item to $15,000. Other expenditures would not need to be confirmed by referendum or a majority vote of the qualified voters.

The proposed charter change res-general restrictions on the issuance of bonds. Bonds for the acquisition of property, or the construction of improvements, would be issued for a period not to exceed the probable usefulness of the property or improvement, and, in any event, not for a longer period than 40 years. The city may not issue bonds or long-term anticipation notes in excess of 10 percent of the city's assessed valuation.

GCS Annual Sales

A record-breaking sales volume of $15,500,000 was reported by Greenbelt Consumer Services, Inc for its fiscal year ending Jan. 31, 1960, according to the Annual Report issued today to the cooperative's 19,013 stockholder-members. The report marks the 20th year of spectacular growth for the country's largest consumer cooperative.

With an 18% increase in over-all volume, net earnings for the year increased 28% to a high of $251,127, compared to $192,038 for 1958. In accordance with the by-law provisions of the cooperative, $106,200 has been returned to the members as their patronage refund savings; $71,700 was paid as the regular fixed stock dividend of 5% (paid every year since 1940); and $17,000 was allocated to reserves. Taxes, including Federal and State income taxes, amounted to $146,234.

The report reflects the opening of a new and greatly enlarged supermarket in Westminster, Md., the consolidation with Rochdale of Virginia (with stores at Falls Church and Fairlington) and the operations of wholly-owned subsidiaries such as the Potomac Petroleum Distributors, Inc., and Potomac Export-Import Corporation.

At year's end, Greenbelt Consumer Services operated eight supermarkets, six service stations, and four pharmacies. Since then, it has opened its ninth and largest supermarket at Penn-Mar, Forestville, Md., and will shortly open two even larger "Regional CO-OP Shopping Centers" - one at Penn Daw, two miles south of Alexandria, Va., and the other at Takoma Park, Md., at New Hampshire Ave. and East-West Highway.

The parade will start at 4 p.m. from Southway and Ridge, follow Ridge to Gardenway, and then down Gardenway to pass reviewing stand at the Mall in the center. Immediately following the parade, the cornerstone laying ceremony for the new Youth Center will take place with the Mayor and Council, Dr. Shane McCarthy, Youth Advisory Board and members of the Youth Center participating.

Dr. McCarthy, who is Executive Director of the President's Council on Youth Fitness, will be the principal guest speaker at the Youth Fitness Banquet which climaxes the day's activities. The banquet will begin at 6:30 p.m. at the Greenbelt American Legion Post Home. Tickets ($2 per person) may be purchased at the City offices.

Dr. McCarthy is expected to sound the keynote for the remainder of the week's activities. National Youth Fitness Week was proclaimed by President Eisenhower as a time for all citizens to help promote the mental, moral, and physical well-being of all our people. Greenbelt was selected as a model community in the U.S. to demonstrate what a small town can do for youth fitness.

It is expected that national coverage will be given to events in Greenbelt during this week. Feature stories are scheduled to appear in Sports Illustrated Magazine as well as in Life, Time, and Look magazines.

On the schedule for Monday are demonstrations starting at 8 p.m. by the Greenbelt Majorettes and Stepperettes and the North End Elementary School Drill Team in the Community Center. The latter has captured many awards for its excellent marching performances and has a repertoire of over 25 maneuvers.

At 9 p.m. the Fire Dept. and Rescue Squad will give a demonstration of fire equipment.

On Tuesday evening at 6 p.m. a giant scouting rally will take place at Greenbelt Lake which will pay homage to the many youths who have achieved positive honors during the year. Participating will be the Boy Scouts, Cub Scouts, Explorers, Brownies, Girl Scouts, and others.

Wednesday will be John Merrick's day as the local physical education teacher puts his grade school charges through their paces, performing frontward and backward rolls, donkey kicks, and headstands. This demonstration of youth fitness by 4th, 5th, and 6th graders will take place at 8 p.m. at the Center School auditorium.

A bicycle outing through the Beltsville Research Center ending at Greenbelt Lake with a picnic lunch and bonfire will feature Thursday's activities. Under the chairmanship of Joseph O'Loughlin, the outing will start at 5:30 p.m.

Friday is baseball night at Braden Field. On the schedule starting at 4:30 are a girls softball game, a Little League night game, and a Men's slow pitch softball game. In between the band will entertain with a concert under the chairmanship of Imogene McCarthy. Little League games are scheduled for every evening of the week.

A Family Day Picnic and Field Day Program at North End School sponsored by the North End PTA will wind up the week's activities on Saturday, May 7, at 3 p.m. For early risers, there is a fishing rodeo scheduled for 7 a.m., at the Greenbelt Lake under the supervision of Harry "Pop" Bell.

NORTH END SCIENCE FAIR

A Science Fair will be held on Tuesday, May 3, at North End School. Science projects will be on exhibit from 10 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Youngsters of kindergarten age through sixth grade will participate. The public is cordially invited.

When The SIREN BLOWS

By Rita Fisher

April 26

The call for help from the Fire Department and Rescue Squad has been quite frequent the past two weeks. Greenbelt's men were part of a group of companies fighting a fire at Good Luck Road and Princess Garden Parkway for over two hours on April 12. On April 13, a brush fire, which started as controlled burning, got out of control, and our men were called out.

Also on the 13th, a child in Greenbelt had a foot caught in the wheel of his bicycle and the men went to the scene in case a Porte power machine should be needed to free the foot. This was not necessary and the child suffered only slight bruises. Another brush fire, behind 27 Court of Parkway, had the men running on the 15.

On April 16, a washing machine motor caused a slight fire in the basement of 46 Crescent. Possible reason for the motor burning out was the use of a 30 amp fuse which, Chief Dutton advises, is too strong for the electricity used in Greenbelt homes.

A house fire in the 6100 block of Greenbelt Road had our equipment out of town on the 20th. The fire was confined to an upstairs closet. There was smoke damage but the owner of the home commended the men on the fast and safe salvage work they did in order to save the furniture they could. Incidentally at this fire our pumper performed for the first time the function it is primarily intended for. It was used to pump water to another piece of equipment which used its hoses to put the fire out.

There was a brush fire on the 20th at Crescent Road and the lake. This fire was definitely started by children and the police have their names. There is also a possibility that children started the brush fire at Ridge Road and the Water Tower (at top end of Ridge) on the same day, about an hour later. Also on that day, came a call from the parkway that there was a fire. Arriving at the scene, the men found no fire. Apparently an oil leak created heavy smoke. While the men were at the Parkway, another call came through and they were on their way again, this time out to the site of the Space agency which is under construction on Glendale Road. The fire was in a tar heater.

Two brush fires were started on the 21st, one at Edmonston and Crescent Road and the other behind 6 Court.

On April 22, the men were again called out for a car fire on the Parkway. This time there really was a fire. Real enough to consider the car, a 1958 Chevrolet Impala, a total loss. The fire was probably started by a flooded carburetor. No injuries were reported.

On the evening of April 24, a house fire was reported in Bowie and our equipment was sent for. Apparently the fire was found to be a minor one by the first company to reach the scene and our men were 10-22'd enroute.

A log pile and the wooded area around it was burning on April 25 and our men were called out to the 5900 block of Greenbelt Road to extinguish it.

The Rescue Squad, besides going along on fire calls, answered a number of calls. A man on Ridge, in an auto accident the day before, found that he had a hip injury and was unable to move. The men were called on April 13 and they carried him to Prince Georges Hospital. Another man was carried to Prince Georges Hospital on the 14th, suffering with a sprained back. A man, with a deep gash on his head and a cut on his leg was transported to Prince Georges Hospital on the 17th.

On April 20, the Rescue Squad was called to the Parkway when a man, who had just gotten off a plane from Colorado, became nauseous and was suffering with stomach pains. He was taken to Prince Georges Hospital.

A woman from Hillside was transported to Prince Georges Hospital on April 21. A woman was taken from Prince Georges Hospital to Hillside on the 22nd. A man with a leg injury was transported to Leland Hospital at 11:29 p.m. on April 25. Lastly, at 6:29 a.m. this morning a woman, bleeding internally, was transported from her home on Ridge to Prince Georges Hospital.

I have only one thing more to write and that's a personal comment. Boys, you have been a bit busy lately, haven't you!

4-H CLUB GIRLS MODEL

By Barbara Skolnik, age 11

Mrs. Helen Geller's 4-S Club went to Upper Marlboro Elementary School to practice for the Prince Georges 4-H Club's Style Review. In a style review, the girls model clothes that they have sewed.

The girls left for Upper Marlboro on Thursday morning, April 21. They were taught how to model. Then they modeled for the judges.

After lunch they rehearsed for Friday night's style revue.

Friday night the girls modeled their aprons for the community in Upper Marlboro. The aprons were on hoops and had big pockets. The girls all appeared together. Then each girl was introduced separately. The announcer gave the name of the girl and said some interesting things about her.

Participating in the revue were Elise Geller, Barbara Geller, Lynn Rousseau, Barbara Skolnik, Eva Garin, Jeanette Louk, Rebecca Kaplan, Carol Dalton, Charlotte McCauley and Barbara Bowman. Elise Geller also modeled a skirt she made.

Each girl won a ribbon. Barbara Geller was the only one in the club to win first place in construction. She received a blue ribbon.

The ceremony was performed by the Reverend Donald Rice.

The bride wore a blue evening length gown. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. John Pluebell. Her matron of honor was Mrs. Fred Pluebell.

Serving as best man was Mr. Fred Pluebell. Ring bearer was David Graham. Barbara Messick played the piano.

A reception was given by Mr. and Mrs. John Pluebell and Mrs. Myrtle Guiley at the Pluebell home in Takoma Park.

The newlyweds will reside in their new home on the Hammond Estates, Route 29.

Watch Those Loops

If you're shopping for cotton knit garments, look for smooth, even rows of loops and no thick and thin spots, advises Lavonia Hilbert, Extension clothing specialist at the University of Maryland.

Studies of children's cotton knitwear show that the size of yarn and tightness of knit can make up to 50 percent difference in amount of wear you can expect from a garment.

Cotton knit fabrics with fine yarn and loose knit lasted for only about 30 days of wear, while fabrics with fairly coarse yarn and firm knit held up for about 50 days of wear.

Research findings by textile researchers of the U.S. Department of Agricultural Research also showed that strength and durability of fabrics made with fine yarns can be increased somewhat by tighter knitting with more loops per inch. However, fabric strength decreases when the loops are crowded too close because they lose elasticity or "give" in very tight knits. This reduces fabric resistance to pulling and stretching.

Earlier tests on men's cotton T-shirts showed that when knit loops are firm and round there is much less shrinkage than when they are long and stretched. After the garment is washed, stretched loops relax and return to their normal round shape with the result that the garment shrinks lengthwise and stretches crosswise.

The purpose of these studies is to help consumers, and manufacturers with information on the wear-life of various types of cotton knit construction.

ST. HUGH'S SODALITY

The regular meeting of St. Hugh's Sodality will be held on Wednesday, May 4, at 8:30 p.m., in the Social Room. The election of officers and reception for new members will take place.

'Rainbow Warning' For Eyes Going Bad

"It's happened," says the unhappy woman in the cartoon. "Bifocals!" Well, yes, it's true. The need for bifocals is one of the signs of advancing age. But doing without bifocals won't keep you young. And avoiding an eye examination for fear that bifocals may be prescribed is courting blindness. You want your eyes checked for more than just glass-ess. For example:

People over forty are particularly liable to the eye disease glaucoma. Normally, fluid is constantly pouring into the inside of the eyeball and draining off through a special channel. In glaucoma, that channel becomes blocked. Fluid continues to pour into the eye, but it has no outlet. Pressure builds up inside the eyeball until it becomes hard. The eyeball presses on the delicate optic nerve ending and destroys the vision unless the disease is detected and treated.

As glaucoma progresses, vision becomes blurred and lights seem to have a rainbow ring around them. The rainbow ring is one sign of glaucoma that anybody can recognize and it should never be ignored. But don't wait for it to appear.

Glaucoma can be discovered by an eye specialist long before the rainbow appears — before the optic nerve has suffered any damage. Your sight depends on that nerve's remaining healthy.

Glaucoma can be treated successfully today with drugs or with surgery, and so blindness can be prevented. The method of treatment depends to some extent on how far the disease has gone.

Periodic eye examinations become more important as you grow older. Bifocals may well happen to you. But avoidable blindness won't. This column is sponsored in the interest of better health by Your Tuberculosis Association.

HIGHWAY DEATHS GO UP

There were 900 more deaths and more than 50,000 additional injuries on U.S. highways in 1959 than was the case in 1958, according to statistics compiled by The Travelers Insurance Companies. Fatalities climbed to 37,600 and more than 2,870,000 were injured as a result of automobile accidents.

By far the single biggest cause of accidents resulting in death or injury was speed. More than 43.1 percent of the deaths and 38.8 percent of the injuries were blamed on speed. Second biggest killer was the driver on the wrong side of the road.

Single Shot Protects Against Four Diseases

The Maryland State Department of Health is adopting the quadruple antigen D.P.P.T. for use in Health Department clinics throughout the State, according to Dr. Perry F. Prather, Director. The new multiple immunizing agent containing poliomyelitis vaccine in combination with diphtheria and tetanus toxoids and pertussis (whooping cough) vaccine will provide immunization against the four diseases with fewer injections and less discomfort to the child.

DUPLICATE BRIDGE

The next duplicate game of the Greenbelt Bridge Club will be held on Friday, May 6, at the Music Room of the North End School. The game will start promptly at 8 p.m. Players without partners are invited, since the director is available to play with unattached players.

Music Makers Want Talent

Which mailman in town can play the flute expertly? What school teacher plays the tuba. Who are the other tuba players that make up a strong bass section? Did you know that a certain real estate salesman here in Greenbelt can play the baritone horn.

The Greenbelt Woodwind and Brass Society can answer these questions while it searches for hidden musical talent among the adults in Greenbelt. Adults who can play a musical instrument (even if you haven't practiced since your High School days) are invited to attend the practice sessions which are held on Monday evenings at the Center School at 7:30 p.m. under the direction of Don Smith. Some instruments are available.

WHAT BABIES SWALLOW

During just one week end in a big city, according to the local poison control center, the following substances were swallowed by children less than five years old:

buttons, borax, turpentine, ink, polystyrene cement, soap powder, iodine, diaper can deodorizer, laundry bleach, varnish, mothballs, charcoal igniting fluid, gun-cleaning solvent, safety matches, dry ice, Burrow's solution, drain cleaner, liquid cement, toilet bowl cleanser, mercury from a wall thermometer, chalk, corn pad, roach and ant killer, cleaning fluid, bubble solution, perfume, fruit spray, baby powder, battery additive, benzine.

Nationwide Inaugurates Merit-Rated Insurance

The Maryland Insurance Department has approved the sale of "merit-rated" auto insurance in the state by Nationwide General Insurance Company of Columbus, Ohio.

Richard G. Chilcott, vice president and general manager, said the program, known as the "Safe-T-Rate" plan, is being introduced in a package contract.

Basically, "merit-rated" insurance is a method of rating where the individual motorist can earn lower premium levels through careful driving habits.

Nationwide General's plan has 9 rate levels. The entry level — or rate at which the motorist enters the plan — depends on his past driving record, where he lives, how much he drives, and so on. If he has had three years of accident-free driving immediately prior to entering the plan he usually starts at Level 5, which is comparable to rates charged in standard auto policies issued by Nationwide Mutual Insurance, another member of the group.

The rate level the driver can attain — either up or down from where he started — depends largely on him. If he goes along without accidents his premium level goes down. (He can realize nearly 20 percent in savings.)
